

I am totally opposed to allowing media companies to own/control both print and TV in one market; it contradicts public interest to have media monopolized by one interest, preventing competition and the free exchange of diverse ideas! We need all the various voices and opinions we can get, not one homogenized and controlled by a particular owner.